

Thousands of Free Worksheets On KidsKnowIt.com

T or F Geography

- T or F Using longitude and latitude it is now possible to accurately describe any location on the Earth.
- T or F A physical address is very useful but longitude and latitude are more concise and accurate.
- T or F A home address is based on your state system.
- T or F Longitude and latitude are accepted worldwide.
- T or F At one time calculating your longitude and latitude was a difficult process.
- T or F Today with Global Positioning Satellites or GPS. it is still very difficult to calculate longitude and latitude.
- T or F GPS devices use the signals from satellites orbiting the Earth to calculate exact locations of the person holding the GPS.
- T or F We can now save our favorite locations on a computer and find them very easily.
- T or F If you wanted to find a waterfall in the desert, you could use your GPS and it would lead you right where you needed to be and you would get lost.