

Thousands of Free Worksheets On KidsKnowIt.com

Fill in the Blank for Biology

1. Life forms live in caves, _____, under _____ in ponds and puddles, in your fish tank, on your countertops and many other places.
2. Human and creatures, share a large home and this home is called _____.
3. Someone who studies life, where life comes from, how it developed, and try to determine how life will continue to develop is called an _____.
4. Biologists today are not completely sure how life began on Earth, but after many years of studying _____, they have come up with _____.
5. Biologists call guesses _____.
6. The most commonly accepted theory is the theory of _____.
7. According to this theory, about 15 billion years ago (15,000,000,000) the _____ was nothing more than a very small speck of _____.
8. This speck was probably no bigger than the _____ of a _____.
9. Everything in the Universe, all the _____, _____, _____, and matter making up your body, was squished up tightly in this tiny space.
10. Eventually, after a very long time, this speck _____.
11. In a giant flash of unimaginable heat and power, the _____ was born.
12. Slowly _____ began to form, and around these stars _____ formed.
13. In a quiet galaxy known as the _____, about two thirds of the way towards the outside of the galaxy, a medium sized yellow star was formed that is known as _____.
14. Around the Sun which is a star, there formed nine _____.
15. The third planet from the star is called the _____.
16. About 4.6 _____ years ago our Earth looked very different than it does today.